

FREESOUND

Remember great music... Jimi Hendrix, Bob Marley, Led Zeppelin.. bands that change the way you see music and the world. That is what Freesound is doing today.

Freesound is a 5 piece band from Hawaii that inhabits the bay area. They meld the sweet rootsy sound of the island with the funk, blues and psychedelic rock of the bay area in its glory days. The band performs a wide range of original music and an ever changing jukebox of covers spanning generations of music.

The band has performed over 800 shows in the last 7 years at major festivals, fairs, colleges and venues, some of the most memorable including -

Monterey Bay Bluesfest
San Pablo Heritage Festival
Point Richmond Music Festival
Sunday Blues in the Park
Monterey Bay Reggaeifest
Summer of Love Festival (Monterey)
Solano County Fair
Seattle Hempfest
Summer Arts & Music Festival (CA)
Health & Harmony Festival
Koots Roots Festival (Canada)
University of Idaho
Idaho State University
Sacramento State University
Western Washington University

They have been honored to support and open for major artists such as Norton Buffalo, Pato Banton, Clinton Fearon, Israel Vibration, Chris Cain, Culture Itals, Mikey Dread, and Bambu Station to name a few.

Review

" Marathon band, the band exceeded everyones expectation by playing a jaw-dropping seven hour set of tight reggae and rock numbers. Apparently, the crowd would not let the guys leave and cars passing by on highway 1 swerved into Fernwoods parking lot after catching a whiff of Freesound's music"
